" Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1906.

BANKER WITH 2 WIVES HIDES FROM POLICE

Kiley, Who Admits Big- Eight Performing Pachyamy, May Be Arrested To-Night.

DETECTIVES SEEK HIM. SCARE IN AUDIENCE.

Mansions Knew of Each Other-Kept Secret.

the millionaire president of the North Bide Bank, of Williamsburg, who went into hiding yesterday, after disclosing his dual identity as the husband of two wives he maintained in luxury, will be arrested this evening and locked up in Raymond Street Jail to await extradition to Hammond, Ind., where his crime of bigamy was committed. His hiding-place has been found by the of Brooklyn, and Inspector Cross conferred over the Kiley case this afternon and telegraphed to Hammond to ask if the authorities there would join sormed Inspector Cross that the crime first right to prosecution. If the Ham- seventh street.

he was alive and well, Kiley sequestered himself to-day.

Considerable alarm was expressed for his safety by both friends and relatives earlier in the day, for when he disapeared yesterday after the disclosure f his dual identity as the husband of

A. Colt, the woman the banker married the show business. in Indiana three years ago when his n what he believed would be her mortal Biness, said when seen at his mother's handsome home on Brooklyn avenue today that word had been received by Mr. Kiley's whereabouts.

At the other home of the banker, on say that any word had been received! from him, and considerable surprise was expressed over the statement of Wilkins of splinters, curtain and sawdust. Colt that Mr. Kiley had assured his mother that all was well with him.

District-Attorney Clarke, when he learned of Mr. Kiley's confession of bigamy, consulted with his assistants and then turned the matter of investiga-

Crime in Indiana.

Mr. Clarke said that the question of jurisdiction was a very delicate one, as the bigamist marriage occurred in III diana. If it could be shown, he thought that the plan to commit the crime was conceived in Brooklyn before the trip West, then he would be able to prosecute.

None of the officers of the North Side Bank, at No. 31 Grand street, Williamsburg, were able to get any clue to his whereabouts since he hurried away in a cab at 11 o'clock vesterday morning. In the offices of his hardware concern at Nos. 57-67 Grand street, a few doors from the bank, his nephew, Thomas W. Kiley, said that he had also been unable to trace his uncle. He did not the clark out of the ring in the they charged out of the rings for the succeeding acts, were reposing in more or less graceful attitude on the saw-dust. They saw the elephants coming and their departure was precipitate. Some of them nad such good starts that they leaped clear over the arena boxes.

The seven stampeded elephants had no desire to go into the boxes. They turned to the right and charged down the himpodrome track toward the exit they leaped clear over the arena boxes and into the reserved seats.

The seven stampeded elephants had they core.

Trained elephant handlers who tried to stom them but samming horks into their ears or hides were yanked in the air and slammed to the ground. A big coach dog that had taken part in the act was swept out of the ring in the direction of the arena boxes.

There was pandemediate to each swell and they deap delear over the arena boxes.

The seven stampeded elephants had they core. Trained elephant handlers who tried to stom them but samming horks into their ears or hides were yanked in the air and slammed to the ground. A big coach dog that had taken part in the circus people were afarid that the sixteen big fellows would break o

He is a man well in the winter of life. When he committed bigamy three years ago he was sixty-one. His legal wife has a beautiful home at No. 201 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, and she, a woman past middle life, is prostrated ever her husband's disappearance. He did not return to this home when he saw that his crime had become public property, nor had any word been received from him at this mansion to-day.

Another woman, who has held her head high in Brooklyn social circles as Mrs. Flora A. Colt. has also fallen into nervous prostration in her beauti-ful home, at No. 216 Brooklyn avenue. She married him in Hammond, Ind. when she believed that the lawful Mrs.

(Continued on Becond Page)

ELEPHANTS ON STAMPEDE IN

derms Made a Dash and Smash Down Doors.

Wives Living in Separate Big Brutes Not Quieted Until They Had Reached Their Quarters.

Eight performing elephants stampeded from the middle ring during the opening performance of the Barnum & Bhiley Circus in Madison Square Garden this afternoon, dashed down to the doors at the eastern end, crashed through them and went all the way to the elephant inclosure in the basement before they were controlled.

The great dudience, electrified by the sight of the big brutes bowling over aroes in the seats and shouted, increasing the general excitement.

north side of the Hippodrome scrambled in the prosecution of the millionaire out and climbed over those behind them for bigamy. The District-Attorney in- for at the beginning of the stampede it appeared as though seven of the elecommitted had violated the laws of In- phants were bent on going right through diana and that that State would have the seats and wall out into Twentymond authorities reply to Inspector There were sixteen other elephants in Cross's telegram to-day and request the the arena at the time, eight in each arrest of the banker he will be immedi- of the end rings. These were old perstely taken into custody and head for formers and their trainers kept them from joining the others. While no one Cutting off all communication with his was hurt, the situation was tense with pusiness associates, but sending word possibilities for a minute and even the me of his bigamous wife that veteran James A. Bailey was on the point of jumping into the arena and taking a hand.

A Big Act in the Show.

The elephant act is one of the big features of the circus. It occupies the three rings to the exclusion of everythe two women he maintained in luxury thing else for a stretch of about fifthe declared that he could not live to teen minutes. The troupe in the middle carry the burden of his shame.

Wilkins Colt, the son of Mrs. Flora elephants, some of which are new to

In the course of the act the little elephants-little only by comparison with the towering giants in the other rings

At the other home of the banker, on thirty miles an hour. He left two Jefferson avenue, however, no one would keepers who started to chase him as though they were anchored, smashed his forehead against the partition and Seven Elephants Followed. Naturally the attention of the trained. As if in obedience to a command they charged out of the ring in the direction of the arena boxes.

Dog in a Deald Faint. come to either place of business to-day, and his business associates were unable to conceal their anxiety over his absence. They admit that for two months he has seemed to be a broken man and had aged ten years.

He is a man well in the winter of the was bright and was actually in a dead faint. They massaged him, held adminosia under his nose and soused him with cold water until he came around. To show that he was all right he returned to the > LA SAVOIE NEARING PORT. CAPE RACE, N. F., March 22 .- The French liner La Savole, from Havre for Washington Government has been inverteless with the Marconi station here when 125 miles south at 9.45 o'clock last francis, nominated to be Ambassador inght. La Savoie will probably reach to Austra-Gingary, will be acceptable dock about 9.4. M. Saturday.

THE CALL OF THE RACE TRACK.

SPRIGGS GUILTY IN WHITE SLAVE CASE

BATTING ORDER.

Reisinger, c. Speas, lf.

Doulin, cf. Strang, rf.

McGann, 1b. Mcrtes, 1f. Dahlen, ss. Devlin, 3b. Gilbert, 2b.

Presnahan, o

Wiltse, p.

(Special to The Evening World.)

game was scheduled to take place.

Second Inning.

BOY SAVED HIS TWO

SISTERS FROM DEATH.

The bravery of Tony Mazzeralli, a boy which they lay terror-stricken with flames leaping up all about them. The children had been playing with matches and when they had set the highly inflammable feathers on fire they were too frightened to cry out, but the smoke

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for the thirty-six hours onding at 8 P. M. Friday for New York City and vicinity: Fair and much colder to-nigh; minimum temperature about 18 degrees:

rricay fair; high to brisk westerly attracted Tony's attention.

Draco, 20 to 1; Red Ruby, 20, and Oliver at 12, Split Second Purse.

offered here to-day. The fields are all while the Nashville nine sent in their Manager Vaughn was not certain about of good size and on paper evenly best slab artist against the Champions.

filness, said when seen at his mother's handsome home on Brooklyn avenue to- day that word had been received by Mr. Kilay's whereabouts.	One of them fires a cannon by puling a tanyard with his trunk. This is the cue for another elephant to pick up a white flag and kimp out of the ring on three legs, as though wounded.	expect, as the form of the horses is very erratic. Despite this a good-sized crowd was at the track. FIRST RACE—Three and a half furlons.	ı
Is Alive and Well.	It was the white flag elephant that caused all the excitement this afternoon.	Betting.	(
"I am only at liberty to state," said young Colt, 'that Mr. Kiley is alive and	He picked up the flag all right, but he didn't limp out on three legs. Instead.	Mamie Cohen, 108, Nicol 8-5 3-5 George Duchscherer, 105, Schilling 25 10	470
well. Where he is I am not at liberty to	he vaulted over the side of the ring and started for the eastern end of the Gar-	Charley Ward, 110, Shilling 10 4 Tom Morgan, 110, Munro 10 4 ell. I feel sure that everything will some out all right, though there will be	den as fast as he could go, trumpting like a steam whistle. An elephant doesn't seem to be going	Capt. Hale, 108, J. Daly 12 5	t
ome sensational revelations when all	very fast as he snambles along but the spectators are willing to make affidavit	Sazarac, 105, Sheridan
At the other home of the banker, on	that this one got along at the rate of thirty miles an hour. He left two	Won by Mamie Cohen: George Duch-	١.
Jefferson avenue, however, no one would	keepers who started to chase him as	scherer was second and Spion third.	1

SECOND RACE-Five and a half furlongs Starters, weights and jockeys. Dřaco, 107, Finn.

Hed Buby 100, A. Johnson.

Oliver, 112, Murro.

Strabane, 112, J. Daly

Sago, 112, Lindsay.

Dr. Mack, 112, Schilling

Arrow Point, 112, Newman. Won by Draco; Red Ruby was second Oliver third. Time-1.09 2-5.

THIRD RACE-Selling; mile and a half. Won by Idddon; Morendo was see Bradley's Pet third. Time—2.36 2-5.

FREED FROM INSANE ASYLUM

Wife and Son Protested, but James S. Sykes Regains His Liberty.

MIDDLETOWN. N. Y. March 22-James S. Sykes, a patient in the State To their surprise they found that he was breathing. He had collapsed from fright and was actually in a dead faint. They massaged him, held admonia under his nose and soused him with cold water until he came around. To show that he was all right he returned to the ring, but he was wabbly on his legs. None of the elephants was injured, but there were narrow escapes as they charged through the crowded dressing room toward the runaways to the basement. The elephant handlers are used to stampedes and managed to keep from under bhe ponderous feet. Mr. Balley was on his way to the centre of excitement when his trained eye saw that the danger was over.

The accidental interruption did not delay the performance and the succeeding acts were put on as arranged.

Hospital for the Insane here, wrote to Justice Keogh recently declaring that he was perfectly sane. The Justice Keogh ordered that a Sheriff's jury hear. Sykes's case, and testimony taken before the jury and Joseph Merritt, of Goshen, as commissioner, has just resulted in Sykes's discharge from the institution. At the hearing Dr. Maurice C. Ashley, superintendent of the hospital, testified that Sykes had not recovered his sanity and letters read at the hearing from Sykes's wife and son expressed the desire that he be not allowed to return to his home. Sykes was connected at one time with a large manufacturing concern in Syracuse. Hospital for the Insane here, wrote to Francis Suits Austria.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 22. - The Washington Government has been informed from Vienna that Charles S.

BATTING ORDER.

Elberfeld, ss

Gear, 1f. Montgomery, 3b. Smith, rf. Elby, 1b. Walters, 2b. Alcock, ss. Matthews, c Sallee, p.

By BOZEMAN BULGER. (Special to The Evening World.)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 22.-It BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 22 -was great baseball weather that the flood of sunlight fell upon the South Giants were greeted with when they to-day and fans flocked to the ball arrived here for the first exhibition park to see the game between the Birgame of the season with the Nashville minghams and the Highlanders. Both Club. The fans here are all worked up teams had greatly improved since their over the Champion Glants, and were last contest, and the playing was snepclamoring for seats an hour before the py from the start. Stiffness had left me was scheduled to take place. the New Yorkers entirely, and they McGraw had his men out early, and went at the minor leagues in Fourth the ginger they showed in the pretimi-nary warm up set the colored boys here all afire. McGraw had Wiltse and Bres-was slated to work strikes the High -The usual card of seven races is nahan down to do the battery work, landers, but until the last momen it. Like Griffith he is a little afraid to take a chance on injuring his best ma Nashville went to the bat first. Wise-man popped to Gilbert. Kanzler filed to Dahlen. Russell out, Weltse to Mc-Gann. NO RUNS.

Donlin out, Bohannon to Stafford.
There aday a here in the eyes of local state. stops at third. This newcomer is all ready a hero in the eyes of local fam. They also admire Wille Keeler. One of the local papers went so far as to announce yesterday "that young Keeler is certainly a comer." Griffith himself says that he believes Keeler will make good. Donlin out, Bohannon to Stafford, Strange filed to Wiseman. McGann out, Watkins to Stafford; a good stop and throw. NO RUNS.

Behannon struc kout. Stafford filed to Dahlen, who made a good running catch. Devlin made a fine stop of Reisinger's grounder and then threw him out at first. NO RUNS.

Mertes fouled out to Stafford. Dahlent hit to deep left for two bases. A wild pitch put Dahlen on third. Devlin singled to left and Dahlen scored. Devlin was caught off first, Kilpatrick to Stafford, to Watkins. Gilbert was hit by a pitched ball. He stole second. Bresnahan was called out on strikes. ONE RUN.

Says that he believes Keeler will make good.

It was a day for young pitchers, but two so warm Griffith intimated that the was higher run in one of his veterans before the fight was over.

First inning.

Molesworth drew a free walk to first as a starter and took second on Geer's sacrifice. Montgomery lifted a long fly to Keeler. Smith walked. Elby hit a line drive to Elberfeld and Molesworth was dribbled at second. NO RUNS.

Hahn placed a pretty single over short but was out stealing second. d. lent hit to deep left for two bases. A wild pitch put Dahlen on third. Devlin in was caught off first, Kilpatrick to Stafford, to Watkins, Gilbert was hit by a pitched ball. He stole second. Bresnahan was called out on strikes.

ONE RUN.

Third inning.

Speas out on strikes. Watkins also struck out, Gilbartick out, Gilbert to McGann, a great stop and throw, NO RUNS.

Wiltse filed to Kanzler. Deally was the single of the story of the strikes went out stealing second. Keeler walked, Elberfeld and Molesworth was dribbled at second. NO RUNS. Hahn placed a pretty single over short but was out stealing second. Keeler walked, Elberfeld and Molesworth was dribbled at second. NO RUNS. Steal, wus doubled at first. NO RUNS. Steal, wus doubled at first. NO RUNS. Second Inning.

Walters went out on strikes.

Walters went out on a pop-foul to Chase. Alcock walked. Smith filed to Conroy and Sallee expired on a grunder to Chase. NO RUNS. RUNS.
Wiltse filed to Kanzler. Donlin out, Kilpatrick to Stafford. Strange beat out a bunt and stole second. McGann was safe on Watkins error. Strange was caught off third, Kilpatrick to Russell. NO RUNS.

LOCAL OPTION MOVES ALONG IN SENATE

ALBANY, March 22.-The Senate Committee on Taxation and Retrenchment to-day reported the Tully bill. of nineteen, saved his two little sisters from a horrible death to-day. He dashed into a bedroom of his parents' flat at No. 354 East Twelfth street and pulled them from a feather bed on of cities.

FIFTH SON FOR CULKIN.

Clerk of the Court of Special Ses sions Smiles To-Day.

Charles Culkin, the ex-Alderman and He was slightly burned about the now Clerk of the Court of Special Sesarms, but the little ones, Toinette and sions, wore a smile while at his labors Catalina, were borne out unhurt.
Still carrying them he ran into the hall and gave the alarm to the thirty families in the big tenement.
When the firemen arrived they quickly put out the fire, which had entirely consumed the bed upon which the little ones had been. to-day.

"It's another boy, thank you," he said Suicide in Office. Justice McKeon, who inquired the cause of the clerk's joyfulness.

This makes the fifth son in the family of the Court Clerk. There are no daughters. Mother and child are doing

TRAIN KILLS FLAGMAN.

John McNally, in the employ of the B. R. T., stationed at Bensen avenue, Roosevelt Sorry, but Can't.

BEATEN OUT BY LUCIE MARIE

Favorite Gets. Home in Time to Save Talent in Second Race.

March 22.—An interesting card was down for decision here to-day and each reds furnished a good contest. The helped swell the attendance. FIRST RACE-Five and a half fi Wen by Gold Rose: Escutcheon was seeind and Fenian third. SECOND RACE—Four Surlongs; selling. Betting.

THIRD RACE-Six furlongs; sell Starters, weights and jockeys. Str. Pl.
Tom Mankins. 111. McGee. 9-2 8-5
Van Ness, 107. Bedell. 11-5 3-5
Elastic, 114. Feicht. 15 5
Third Alarm, 104. Z. Smith. 9-5 3-5
Bill Edwards. 112. J. Conly. 60 16
Lady Henrietta, 105. Aubruchon. 15 5
Arabo. 112. Robbins. 20 7
Sterling Pepper. Chisman. 60 12
Won by Tom Mankins, Van Ness second and Elastic third. Tom Minkins disquadified for foul. Third Alarm gets third.

LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY.

French Spy Caught. COLOGNE, GERMANY, MARCH 22.

ment to-day reported the Tuily bill, providing for local option in cities, amended so as to omit the provision for remonstrance to a court, and practically merely extend the local option election privilege to residence districts of cities.

Saved from Snowdrift.

WOOSTER, Ohio, March 22.—Seventeen passengers on three cars of the Cleveland Southwestern Traction line, snoybound by deep drifts five miles from Wooster, after spending an uncomfortable night, were rescued to-day by farmers and livery men from Wooster, who sent three big sleighs to the snowbound cars. WOOSTER, Ohio, March 22.-Seven

SALEM, Mass., March 22.-While salem, mass., march 22.—while alone in his office at noon to-day John S. Jeffrey, manager of the local branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal Company, shot himself in the head with a revolver causing death. No reason is known for the loc. Mr. effrey was fifty years old and a native of Philadelphia. He leaves a widow,

B. R. T., stationed at Bensen avenue, Bath Beach, was instantly killed by a train early to-day. He had stepped from the north to the south track to allow a train to go by, when a south-bound train struck him, hurling him to death.

McNally was sixty years of age and lived at Benson avenue, near Bay Eighteenth sizes. Beth Beach.

NEGRO MASTER OF WHITE GIRLS MAY GET TWENTY YEARS

Jury Returns a Verdict of "Guilty" Against Bob Spriggs, Dive-Keeper and Politician, in Less than Eight Minutes.

"Bob" Spriggs was found guilty of abduction in the notorious white slave case, on trial in General Sessions, late this afternoon. The jury was out less than eight minutes, and the crowd in the courtroom was on the point of cheering, when a warning order of silence was given. After a short delay Spriggs was arraigned. He trembled like a leaf.

and his bony jaws furrowed with deep wrinkles visibly. The Clerk took his pedigree. The prisoner said he was forty-seven years old and was born in

Judge Cowing remanded Spriggs to next Tuesday, when sentence will be pronounced. The maximum sentence for the second offense is ewenty In summing up for his client Lawren

AS CHEMST, DEAD oners in his victous resorts. Assistant District-Attorney Garvan pointed out the discrepancies in the de-

Aged 83 Years—Was a Born New Yorker.

nous chemist, died to-day at his home, the Strathmore Hotel, No. 1672 Broadway, at the age of eighty-three years, tend to a moral and reputable woman Born at his father's home on Bowling He urged them to dismiss from their Green, he was graduated from New minds all prejudice or sympathy. If, York University in 1842, remaining at His Honor said, it had been proved that the university in various teaching posts Spriggs had detained Hattle Warren for until 1850. While there, in 1849, he intro- immoral purposes, the defendant should inced a chemical laboratory in the Free Academy, which afterward became the Cellege of the City of New York. Made professor of chemistry in the colvue Hospital Medical School., He was a member of the Union League Club, can Geographical Society and numerous other soleties.

N. Y. CENTRAL OFFICIAL FOUND DEAD IN BED.

David Ketchele, for many years supertral Station, was found dead in bed against her (assault and keeping a dis-

Heinzelman attacked the character of the white-slave witnesses and declared that while Spriggs was a bad man generally he was not guilty of kidnapping girls and keeping them unwilling pris fendant's testimony regarding the raid Passes Away at His Home, of Hatthe Warren's teeth. He said the jurors could not put Spriggs's unsupported word before the evidence of four reputable policemen and a rep utable dentist.

Charge to the Jury.

ing charged the jury. He told them that Hattie Warren was entitled to the same protection that the law would exin the be punished. He pointed cut that Spriggs had once before been convicted of a felony, and that naturally he would have every motive for attempting to

Sallie Bennet Plads Gullty

An unexpected denouement occurred when Sallie Bennett, Spriggs's woman confederate, was brought in to plead guilty, she having been jointly indicted with Spriggs. Her counsel, Frank Wheaton, a negro lawyer, had arranged with District-Attorney Jerome that she should confess. She is a big, yellow ne gress, wearing glasses. Her features were working nervously.

It had been agreed that upon her plea intendent of signals at the Grand Cen- of guilty to abduction the other charges to-day at No. 720 Third avenue, where orderly house) would be dismissed. In The cause of death is unknown, as the Coroner has not passed on the case.

He had boarded with the family for the had boarded with Edward H. Thompson. He had boarded with the ramily for six years, and Mr. Thompson, who found the body, says that he was in the best of spirits last night when he retired, and that there are no indications of suicide. He was forty-five years old and unmarried.

stabbing Matilda Hamilton, an inmate of one of her houses, in 1888, and served four years in the penitentiary. She was also remanded until next Tuesday. The years old and unmarried. who stabbing Matilda Hamilton, an inmate

GIANTS AT NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE... ... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 HIGHLANDERS VS. BIRMINGHAM.

SIRMINGHAM.... 0 0 0 0 0 1 HIGHLANDERS...... 0 0 0 0 1 0

LATE WINNERS AT FAIR GROUNDS.

Fourth-Little Scout 3-5, Blennenworth out pl., Footlight's Favorite.

AT CITY PARK.

Fourth-M'dow Breeze 6-5, Pr. Brutus out pl., Norwood O. Fifth-Mynheer 7-2, Gamara 3-1 place, The Only Way.

HAS DEUEL QUIT THE BENCH?

Justice Joseph M. Deuel did not preside at the Court of Special Sessions to-day. He visited the building and talked with the other Justices during the recess. He told the reporters he had nothing to say.

STEPHENSON MAKES RA'D IN MERCER STREET. Capt. Stephenson, of the Mercer street station, made a raid on an alleged pool-room late this afternoon and bagged three prisoners and a quantity of material said to be used in gambling. The room was a No. 230 Mether street.